COURT RELEASES JOHNS IN THE LAKE MYSTERY

Suitor of Alice Crispell Accused of Causing Her Death Is Exonerated.

GIRL'S SISTER TESTIFIES.

Says Father of the Victim Threatened to Kill Her and Was at Crime Scene.

(Special to The Evening World.) WILKES-BARRE, Pa., July 16.—Herbert Johns, held under a charge of murder in the Alice Crispell mystery, was released by Judge Fuller in the Luzerne County Court late today on habeas corpus proceedings brought by his counsel. His discharge followed testimony given by a number of witnesses covering all phases of the case.

Johns, pale and nervous, appeared before Judge Fuller this afternoon to fight for his release on the charge of being responsible for the death of his sweetheart. Johns was accompanied by his mother, sisters and several friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crispell sat near Johns, but never spoke to him. With Crispell and his wife were many of their country-side friends. District Attorney Blewett opened the case without delay. Mrs. Magda Holcomb, sister of Alice Crispell, was the first witness called. She said she met Alice in this city on July 4 at 10:30 A. M., and that Johns was with her. She said they planned to go to the lake at 3:30 P. M., and met at that hour as arranged.

The party arrived at the Onondaga Hotel at 9 o'clock and all drank beer. She said Alice drank six bottles. The party remained together for three hours and the witness said it was understood by all that Herbert was to go home with Alice. Later, Alice said she was going to the Crispell farm house and Herbert said he would go with her. SAW JOHNS AND THE GIRL GO DOWN LAKE ROAD.

At 11:30 o'clock the witness said she left the lake for Wilkes-Barre, and before leaving the lake she said she saw Herbert and Alice start down the lake road in the direction of the boat landing. She said the beer Alice drank made her ill. Alice did not stagger. Johns was sober, she said.

On cross-examination, the witness stated that Alice first came to Wilkes-Barre four years ago to go to school, and one year later started city life as a waitress in the Windsor Hotel. She said Alice had drunk intoxicants slightly for three years. She denied that her sister was subject to fits.

Mrs. Holcomb said her father threatened to shoot Alice for her waywardness. The father was at the lake between 7 and 8 o'clock. Fourth of July night, and Alice and the father did not speak.

S. T. Nicholson on the night of July 4 came along the lake road at 11 o'clock with his wife and said he heard a scream from a boat on the lake. He was that of a girl in the night. He thought so much he saw a hat floating in the water. After hearing the scream he saw a man at the Weckesser boat landing. He could not describe the man, as the latter hurried away.

SISTER FOUND HIM IN BED AT THEIR HOME. Clara Johns, sister of Herbert, swore she was in the party at the lake on July 4. She left the lake after 11 o'clock and got home about 1 o'clock, finding Herbert home and in bed. She said she and Alice lived at Harvey's Lake and on the night of July 4 she spent the day and night at the lake side. She said she saw Alice and Johns along the road at the boat landing about 1:30 o'clock and saw them sitting along the bank. She stopped and talked a few minutes to the couple and then went on home, reaching home at 12:30 o'clock, walking slowly along the lone country road. She said she met no one after passing the couple until she reached home.

(Special to The Evening World.) POLIO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, July 16.—Just before the game today, McGraw announced that he had signed Emilio Palmero, one of the star pitchers of the Almendares team of Havana. The deal was made through Rafael Conti, one of the Cuban newspaper men, who is now in New York. Palmero is a big blue-eyed Irish looking fellow, who is six feet tall and with tremendous speed. The new Cuban pitcher will report to the Giants next spring at March 15. For the concluding game with the Reds, Toscano and Suggs were the opposing pitchers. A crowd of 700 were on hand to see the fight. FIRST INNING—Devore popped out to...

HER SKIRT SLIT KNEE HIGH, COSTS HER FINE OF $25

Indignant, Will Cut Richmond for New York, Which Is "Not So Prudish."

SHOCKED THE MAYOR.

But Miss Blossom Browning Can Not Imagine Why Her Gown Should Offend.

RICHMOND, Va., July 16.—Blossom Browning paid a $25 fine in Judge Crutchfield's court here today for wearing a slit skirt, and declared she intended to go to New York at once, "where people are not prudish." She was charged with indecent exposure. The skirt, slit knee high, and held by the police as evidence, was restored to Miss Browning on her promise to sew up the slash or not to appear again in the streets of Richmond without a petticoat. Miss Browning's lawyer argued that the sale of the skirt by a licensed department store prompted her to wear it. Judge Crutchfield replied that a city license for the sale of firearms did not authorize murder. The Justice, after an inspection of the offending skirt, blushing fined the defendant, who paid with the remark that "Richmond was a most illiberal city." Justice Crutchfield's court was packed with the most select audience it had held. The arrest of Miss Browning, which was the first made in Richmond since the advent of the "alibouette" gown and the slashed skirt, occurred yesterday when Mayor George Ainslie and Chief of Police Werner were asked over the phone to come to Eighth and Broad streets. A few minutes after their arrival a young, dark-haired woman, smartly dressed, emerged from a moving picture theatre. She was attired in a blue gown, slashed on the right side to a distance several inches above the knee. Her stockings were very sheer, and the men and women congregated by the attraction threatened a blockade of foot traffic. The Mayor and Chief of Police looked on. Chief Werner stepped to the woman's side and told her the dress was too extreme and she must not appear again in the street wearing it. "Indeed!" was the scornful reply. "I bought this gown at a licensed department store and I'm going to wear it anywhere I wish."

The Chief then conferred with Mayor Ainslie, a warrant was issued and Miss Blossom Browning gave bond for her appearance in police court to-day.

$625,000 NECKLACE STOLEN FROM MAIL ON WAY TO LONDON

Sugar Instead of Pearls in Package After It Has Been Received from Paris.

CASE A DEEP MYSTERY.

Scotland Yard Detectives Inclined to Believe Robbery Was in France.

LONDON, July 16.—The theft of a pearl necklace, valued at $625,000, was reported to the Scotland Yard authorities today. The pearls are alleged to have been stolen during transit by post from Paris to a dealer in London. The robbery was discovered in London this morning when the registered packet in which the necklace had been despatched was opened. The case contained only pieces of sugar. The seals of the packet were apparently intact. As the sugar was of French manufacture the abstraction of the necklace is considered as probably having occurred in France.

ROOSEVELT, IN CAGE 800 FT. OVER RIVER, IS CAUGHT IN STORM

Colonel and Sons Archie and Quentin Have Thrilling Time, but Not Hurt.

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., July 16.—A terrific electrical storm, the worst experienced in this region in several years, raged about Col. Theodore Roosevelt and his party yesterday as they crossed the Colorado River in Bright Angel canyon, en route to the Bad Lands hunting grounds. The crossing was made in the cage suspended from a cable 800 feet above the river. Lightning played about the cage and the Colonel and his sons, Archie and Quentin, were drenched by rain, but suffered no other mishap.

RAILROAD OWNER'S WIDOW, WHO IS BRIDE OF HUSBAND'S NEPHEW

MRS. HUNTINGTON WEDS NEPHEW OF LATE HUSBAND

Bridegroom of To-Day Was Divorced by First Wife, Who Was Niece of Bride.

PARIS, July 16.—The marriage took place today of Mrs. Arabella D. Huntington, widow of Collis P. Huntington of New York, to Henry E. Huntington, the railroad man of New York and Los Angeles. The religious ceremony was performed at the American Church in the Rue de Harri. Collis P. Huntington, who died in August, 1906, left a fortune estimated at many millions, which he bequeathed to his wife, his adopted son, Archer M. Huntington; his nephew, Henry E. Huntington, and his adopted daughter, Clara Huntington, who was married in 1889 to Prince Francis of Hesse-Oldenburg, who died in 1910 in London.

The engagement of Mrs. Huntington and the nephew of her late husband has been reported frequently and denied by Mrs. Huntington. The rumor was circulated soon after the death of the railroad financier. Mrs. Huntington's latest marriage to her third venture in matrimony, she was Mrs. A. D. Warham of Alabama when she was married to Collis P. Huntington in 1864. She is now probably close to sixty years old. H. E. Huntington is about sixty-four years old and was divorced a few years ago by his first wife, who was Miss Mary E. Pringle of Newark, N. J. Her mother was the sister of Mrs. Collis P. Huntington, and she was therefore the niece of the woman who succeeded her to-day as Mrs. H. E. Huntington. H. E. Huntington was born in Ontario, N. Y., and was in the hardware business there until his father's brother, Collis P. Huntington, took the young man into business with him. He became his uncle's right-hand man in the management of his great railroad properties and inherited from him nearly $10,000,000 in railroad securities.

SEES AVIATOR SON KILLED.

Mother Steps to Window as Airman Is Hurled to Earth. CHENY, Cal., July 16.—Theodore Kern, a twenty-year-old aviator, was killed today here before the eyes of his aged mother who stepped to a window to see her son fly past. Kern's engine exploded when he was at a height of seventy-five feet and when he fell the radiator crashed his head.

WILSON'S HURRY CALL BRINGS AMBASSADOR TO REPORT ON MEXICO

President, After Conference With Secretary Bryan, Takes Step Looking to Possible Reversal of Non-Intervention Plans.

MAY USE BATTLESHIP TO HURRY ENVOY'S TRIP

Attitude of Foreign Governments Believed in Washington to Have Caused a Shift in Policy.

(Special to The Evening World.) WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Wilson today ordered Henry Lane Wilson, United States Ambassador to Mexico, to come immediately to Washington for consultation on the critical condition of affairs prevailing in that country.

A despatch from Mexico City says the Ambassador will leave for Washington to-night. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, secretary of the Embassy, will be left in charge.

Secretary of State Bryan made the announcement after a hurried conference with the President this forenoon. It has not been decided just how the Ambassador can get here most quickly, but one of the battleships at Vera Cruz may take him aboard and bring him to Galveston, Tex. He could then take train for the Capitol. Revolutionary uprisings in the north have rendered railway travel impossible between Mexico City and the American border.
